

OPTIONS

Secured by Promoters of the Linoleum Trust.

Dr. A. M. Collof Youngstown, General Manager of the largest light weight linoleum plant in the United States is in the city. At this time a great deal of significance attaches to his visit.

It was learned from a reliable source that he is here for the purpose of conferring with the officials of the Western Linoleum Co. relative to the combination of the interests of all the concerns of that kind in the country.

From another source it was ascertained that options have been obtained on every plant in the United States. Only those manufacturing light weight linoleum will be included in the consolidation. It is not intended to unite the interests of the manufacturers of floor linoleum. That is an entirely separate industry.

The fact that Mr. George Warner has indefinitely delayed the awarding of the contract for the construction of his new residence is taken as evidence of the fact that the linoleum deal is about closed. A local contractor, who had prepared figures on the work informed a reporter for the Democrat Tuesday that he had received notice that bids would not be considered at present. Mr. Warner is an official of the Western Linoleum Co. He had intended to build a residence this spring. He now expects to remove from this city.

Prohibitionists Say Party Is Stronger Than Ever.

Prohibitionists throughout the State exhibit more enthusiasm in the fight to be made in the coming State elections than has been shown in years, and indications are that the convention to be held here this week to nominate a State ticket, will be large and productive of closer union in the Prohibition party than has usually been the case.

Local leaders say that there will be no dissension among the workers of different opinions regarding a party platform, and that the one issue of the campaign will be the liquor traffic.

Among the names suggested for places on the State ticket, the following list seems to comprise those from which the candidates will be chosen:

For Governor—E. Jay Finney, Esq., of Cuyahoga county; Rev. H. F. McLean, of Lucas county; Hon. C. F. Bough, of Columbiana.

For Lieutenant Governor—J. B. Martin, Hamilton county; Rev. W. F. Crispin, Summit; C. W. Pelton, Ashtabula; Rev. W. A. Williams, Monroe; Rev. A. S. Watkins, Williams.

Judge of the Supreme Court—Mahlon Rouch, Wayne county.

For Attorney General—T. W. Shreve, Belmont; A. L. Talcott, Cuyahoga; M. G. McCaslin, Portage.

For Treasurer of State, the names of S. W. Dunlap, Pickaway; J. H. Hawkins, Jefferson; J. N. Watrous, Huron, and G. W. Crowell, of Clark county, are mentioned.

For Clerk of the Supreme Court, the race will probably be between Frank M. McIntyre, Franklin county, and Jason Lusk, of Washington county.

The names of Amos Miller, Logan county; J. W. Carpenter, Noble county, and George Dods, Greene county, have been announced for the candidacy for Member of Board of Public Works.

Very few of the delegates and visitors are expected before Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, when the State Executive and State Central committee will meet at the Windsor hotel and hold a business meeting preceding the convention.

GREAT STRIKE.

Akron Men Have Made It In Lodi's Oil District

The Akron men who are interested in the oil wells at Lodi, are highly elated over the success of their venture.

It is claimed that the field is one of the richest that has been opened in Ohio in recent years. The oil is found at a depth of only 400 feet. Wells can be put down cheaper in the Lodi district than anywhere else. The cost of drilling is less than $60. At other points the expense of sinking a well is the heaviest item of the venture. One of the stockholders said Tuesday that he could sell his holdings at four for one whenever he desired. Many people are flocking into Lodi and the quiet village has taken on the appearance of a second Cairo.

FINES

Aggregating $2,500 Imposed.

Dr. Goehring Notified of Court's Action.

Will Pay No Attention to Order.

Dr. Charles L. Goehring, president of the Goehring Manufacturing Co., of this city, is making good his assertion that he would pay no attention to the order issued by Judge Chetlain commanding him to appear in Chicago to show cause why he should not be held for contempt.

Monday attorney H. L. Snyder and Mr. Irving K. Vogt, the plaintiff in the action against Dr. Goehring, called at the office of the Goehring Manufacturing Co., and demanded that the President of the company pay to them the judgment of $211.50 found against him and that he further deliver the 100 shares of stock decreed to Mr. Vogt by the Superior Court of Cook county, Ill. Dr. Goehring flatly refused to comply.

Dr. Goehring is now under a fine of $2,500. It is alleged that he is guilty of contempt of court because of his failure to comply with the order, which is in substance as stated above. The original fine of $600, noted in the Democrat some time ago, was assessed March 28. Since that time two additional fines, each for $1,000 have been taxed against him. The first was imposed Apr. 15. Dr. Goehring was given notice of this. Acting on the advice of his attorneys he refused to pay it. Apr. 29, another fine of $1,000 was assessed, in addition to this all the costs in the action are charged against him. He maintains that the courts of Illinois have no jurisdiction as he is a resident of Akron. The plaintiff says that he did not take up his residence here until a year after the action was commenced and that his change of residence was the result of the filing of the case. There is an order out for the arrest of Dr. Goehring but it cannot be served on him in this state. His friends and business associates say that he is acting on the advice of his attorneys. They have assured him that he cannot be held on any order issued outside of Ohio in a State Court.

PLENTY

Of Witnesses Has Mr. Arnacke.

Test of the Butchers' Sunday Closing Agreement.

"Maybe there will be a room full," said Henry Arnacke, when asked how many witnesses he would have in the case in Police Court in which he is charged with having his meat market on North Howard st., open on Sunday. Arnacke had asked for a continuance of his case to next Wednesday.

"Who is your counsel?" asked the Court.

"Maybe I'll be able to do that myself," said Mr. Arnacke with a quiet smile.

L. S. Pardee, Esq., whom the Butchers' Association has retained to prosecute the case, objected to so long a continuance and Mayor Doyle set the time for Friday morning. A hot fight is expected. This will be to a large extent a test case of the Sunday closing agreement entered into by the butchers.

The experience of Mrs. L. J. Pisel, related in the following words will deeply interest hundreds of readers. Mrs. Pisel is an Akron citizen, residing at 133 Bowery st. No better proof of merit can be had than her statement. She says:

"I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective and thoroughly reliable from personal experience and from what they did for my father and my sister. My father obtained them from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store on South Howard st. We used several boxes. I had acute lameness in my back, commonly called crick, which caught me when stooping or rising from a chair, and I was embarrassed with inactive kidneys. I found Doan's Kidney Pills prompt in relieving me of both. I know of no medicine which ever did my sister so much good as Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. In Operation of Northern Ohio R. R.

Statement Made by Company Official.

A meeting of the Auditors of several counties was held at the Court House Tuesday for the purpose of fixing the valuations of the Northern Ohio, the C. & A. & C. and B. & O. Railroads.

Those present at the meeting were Messrs. George Feltz, Allen county; S. P. DeWolf, Hancock county; W. H. Hobart, Medina county; C. W. Fritz, Richland county; B. F. Leopold, Putnam county; J. F. Kimmerlin, Crawford county; J. H. Beattie, Huron county; Geo. H. Lewis, Lorain county; E. N. Halbittel, Wyandotte county, and Dr. L. E. Sisler, Summit county. Auditor DeWolf acted as secretary, and Dr. Sisler as chairman.

The first railroad considered was the Northern Ohio. Mr. H. C. Cochran, a representative of the L. E. & W. appeared for the railroad. He objected to any increase in the valuation, claiming that the Northern Ohio was being operated at a loss from $90,000 to $105,000 each year. On a showing like that he felt that the valuation should be made as low as possible. It was decided to leave the valuation where it was last year, when the road paid taxes on a valuation of $1,500.
